1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 9-14, 22 and 26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being fully met by Franz et al.

The Franz insertable card reads on applicant's extension board and with the first organ reads on applicant's expander and first tone generator. Prescribed elements of musical tones are transferred to execute new functions to another card in another organ or second tone generator.

Tone color and effects are transferred.

3. Claims 9, 14 and 26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being fully met by Woron et al.

The Woron specification memory reads on applicant's extension board and with the organ reads on the first tone generator. The different voice or tone color information expands the prescribed elements of musical tones. This information can be stored and executed as new functions.

4. Claims 1-8, 21 and 25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(fully met) as being Franz et al by which are executed. The new functions are actuated by operators and sent to another organ.

Tone color and various other specification effects are provided.

5. Claims 1-8, 21 and 25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being fully met by Woron et al.

The Woron specification memory reads on applicant's extension board. Stored information is readout providing expansion of prescribed elements of musical tones providing new functions which are executed. The new functions are actuated by operators and recorded for later use or sending. Tone color and various other special effects are provided.

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
